Observations... From Around Town

(BY JAY WHOZIT)

On this Sunday, June 15th, summer camps for small boys and girls will open at Saint Stanislaus and St. Joseph Academy. These camps have been held for quite a number of years, now and are proving more popular each year and from advance reports, both will be filled to capacity. A mere suggestion to the Chamber of Commerce—a plan to lend recognition to the outstanding citizen of the year in Hancock County would probably help arouse some enthusiasm among our business and civic leaders and produce results beneficial to our community.

General Dwight D. Eisenhower will visit Mississippi on July 4th, when he will address the Independence Day celebration in Vicksburg. One out of every fifty registered voters in Hancock County is a candidate for office, eighty-five candidates having qualified at the closing time on last Thursday, June 5th. It looks as though it will be necessary to put tabs on the candidates in order to identify them and to keep them from shaking one another's hands off. There's no doubt, it's a great game but you may rest assured that on August 6th there will be different ideas.

In Jones County 107 candidates have qualified, 15 for sheriff alone. For the second time the bids for the proposed construction of the new Colored Public School have been rejected, because of the fact they were too far out of line with the amount of money available for the building at this time.

"Bobby" Camors and "Fritz" Peranich, of the Bay Motors local Ford Dealers, returned this week from Dallas, Texas, where they attended the Southwestern Regional meeting of the Ford Motor Company dealers. They report that production will increase very little before 1948. If you are interested in seeing motion pictures of the 1947 Sugar Bowl game between Georgia and North Carolina, you may do so free of charge at the Orthe Theater on Thursday afternoon, June 19, at 3:30 o'clock. Mr. Mayon—with the hot summer days at hand, the asphalt on some of the city's streets is getting "soggy". Why not spread a little sand on these spots, it would help quite a lot. Also, this has been mentioned before there are still a lot of stray dogs running loose on the city's streets and they are dangerous to the children as well as the grown-ups. On last Sunday morning we were shocked to hear of the sudden death of Judge Henry T. Fayard, Sr. He was not what we would call a great man, nor was he wealthy, but he was a devoted husband and father, who had reared a large family and was exceedingly popular with all who knew him, and it can truly be said that no one ever heard him pass an unkind remark about his fellowman. During his term of office he had judged and passed sentence on many, now it is his turn to appear before the Greatest Judge of them all, and it is our hope that he will be acquitted and sent to Eternal Rest. Our friend, Wilmer Thibault, was recently elected as Grand Knight of the local Council of the Knights of Columbus and will be installed at the next regular meeting, congratulations, Wilmer, boy. The local Clement R. Bontemps Post of the American Legion are planning an old-time all-day picnic and lots of fun for young and old in celebration of the Fourth of July, the outing will be held at St. Stanislaus Stadium. Adding another to our list of local organizations which deserve the support and assistance of the general public is the local Bay St. Louis-Hancock County Public Library, which is really an asset to our community and should be given the public's consideration at all times.

Waveland already has one public pier at the head of Coleman avenue and is planning another at the head of Waveland Avenue as soon as funds are available, so that the Town will not have to go into any more debt.

Chosen To Do Research Work

Miss Audrey Meade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Meade of Waveland has been chosen to do research work in recognition of her having attained the highest average, 95, with an A grade in Medical Technology at St. Josephs Hospital at Memphis, Tenn.

To Attend Reading Clinic

Mesdames H. Grady Perkins, Celine Ashcraft, Jeanne Williams, Ethel Zingling and Misses Mary Perkins, Luvina Sauter and Carmelle Spornoff will leave shortly for Hattiesburg to attend the Reading Clinic being held at Mississippi Southern College.

HORACE L. KERGOSEIN ANNOUNCES FOR SHERIFF AND TAX COLLECTOR OF HANCOCK COUNTY

The Sea Coast Echo is authorized to announce the candidacy of Horace L. Kergosien, for the office of Sheriff and Tax-Collector of Hancock County. His statement follows:

To the Voters of Hancock County:

I take this means of announcing my candidacy for Sheriff and Tax Collector of Hancock County. I think it is needless to write a long announcement. Briefly I have only a few things to make clear which are as follows: I was born, reared and educated in Hancock County. I served 12 years as Deputy Clerk of Courts, four years as Deputy Tax Collector and four years as Sheriff and Tax Collector. I am strictly an independent candidate, not influenced, solicited or backed by any Union or political faction. I served as Sheriff and Tax Collector between the years of 1910 to 1944. I served fairly and honestly in those four years and I think my record will back that up. I did not associate my enemies and I certainly was loyal to my friends. I qualified on the last day (June 5). I was solicited by many of the reputable citizens of Hancock County to run again for this office and hesitated for a long time, in fact, I had decided that I would probably not run, but so many of the voters on the last day prevailed upon me stating that there was such an uncertainty as to what might happen in that race that I finally consented. I am running strictly on my merits. I am not going into this race with any animosity nor am I going into it to do any particular group or individual any favors. If my record does not stand for itself then I have nothing else to offer. I realize I have ten opponents and will face stiff opposition but my platform is to give the office to the people and not to any organized group. Some people are very interested in the Sheriff's race but have never qualified to run, for that office, therefore, I say it those people have such interest in who is elected for that important office they certainly have had ample opportunity to qualify themselves. There are 11 candidates in that race, let them present their claims and qualifications and vote your own convictions. The old method of notifying or telephoning or delivering poll taxes on the last day and expecting people to follow instructions should be ignored. Keep the sheriff's office in the hands of the people. A good honest administration should suit everybody except those who are expecting special favors. I am going to conclude by saying that I am not running with the support of any organization or the promise of any favoritism or contributions from any one. If my record does not suit you, then I know what you will do, but if you think I am honest and mean what I say then go to the polls and vote for me. I expect to run a clean race and I think my opponents will find that out. I cannot contact you individually as time will not permit, but please vote according to your own conscience.

HORACE L. KERGOSEIN.

CLARENCE E. CUEVAS ANNOUNCES FOR SUPERVISOR, BEAT 4

CLARENCE E. CUEVAS

The Sea Coast Echo is authorized to announce the candidacy of Clarence E. Cuevas for the office of Supervisor Beat 4. To the People of Beat 4 Hancock County:

In announcing my candidacy for the office of Supervisor, Beat 4 Hancock County, I wish to state that I was born and raised in Beat Four. That I am a veteran of World War II, and that I have injured legs and back. I have lived in the Cataboula Community all of my life. I attended the Kiln High School for four years, and graduated there in 1941.

In the same year I entered the service of my country in the United States Army. I entered the race at the solicitation of no individual, and have nothing to say against my opponents. It has been rumored that I will in time withdraw from the race. This is a false rumor and my friends may rest assured that I am in the race to stay. May I suggest that in the event that you do not know me personally that you make some inquiry of the younger people in the beat, and they will be able to tell you something about me.

I shall try to see all of the voters in the beat, and I assure you that all the help you may give me shall be appreciated.

Thanking you, I am,
Respectfully,
CLARENCE E. CUEVAS.

FRANCIS J. BOPP ANNOUNCES FOR SHERIFF AND TAX COLLECTOR OF HANCOCK COUNTY

FRANCIS J. BOPP

The Sea Coast Echo is authorized to announce the candidacy of Francis J. Bopp for the office of Sheriff and Tax Collector of Hancock County. His statement follows:

To the Voters of Hancock County:

Please consider this, as my formal announcement as a candidate for the Office of Sheriff and Tax Collector of Hancock County in the Democratic Primary Election to be held August 5th, 1947.

To those who do not know me personally I will state as follows— I have been a Citizen and Tax-Payer of Hancock County for the past thirty-four years. I have reared my family in Hancock County and educated them at our local schools.

Prior to 1936 I commuted daily to New Orleans to work and I spent my earnings in Hancock County. From 1936 to 1944 I was employed as Chief Deputy Sheriff and Tax Collector of Hancock County. My record of eight years service in that capacity speaks for itself.

During World War I my entire family was engaged in war work. Some did actual Combat Service Overseas and the others served in Home Defense. The same as all real American families did.

With my record as Chief Deputy Sheriff and Tax Collector, and also that I am a Registered Public Accountant, you can be assured that the records of the office will be kept in a first class manner.

As I am not connected with any other business, I will be able to devote my entire time to the office, so that you will be assured that the entire operation of the office will be under my constant Personal Supervision and control.

In order to help out Tax Payers during tax paying time, I will have the office open after 5 O'clock to serve anybody who cannot come to the office before 5 o'clock. The main idea is to assist all tax payers and prevent any from losing valuable time during working hours.

Each and every citizen will be given courteous, fair and square treatment.

If elected, I am fully aware of the fact that I will be a public servant, and I will be ready at all times to help the citizens of Hancock County.

As I am campaigning alone, and I am not connected with any organization or political group, it will be impossible for me to contact each voter of Hancock County personally. For that reason, I am taking this means of asking for the aid and support of every voter of Hancock County who approves of my qualifications and ability.

For the welfare and benefit of Hancock County, now is the time that its citizens cast aside all personal feelings and vote for the candidate whom they think is the best qualified for the office.

Respectfully submitted,
FRANCIS J. BOPP.

The Graduates' Creed

By Pierre Dupaquier
This is my diploma. It is a documentary symbol of free public education upon which rests the perpetual being of the democratic form of government. It signifies the completion of the requirements for graduation from high school as determined by qualified authorities.

I believe that the effort I have made to obtain it will be rewarded with opportunities and achievements in life that could not otherwise be obtained.

I believe that these have been the formative years of my life and that this diploma will keep me ever mindful of: An obligation of obedience to and achievement for my parents to reward their years of patient toil and sacrifice to provide opportunity for me.

An obligation of appreciation to my teachers for their unceasing efforts of guidance and wisdom in the fullest development of my physical and mental abilities.

An obligation to my community for its faith in the support of institutions which mold young men and women into the fullest realization of their individual and social value.

I believe that my diploma is a master key to the treasure chest of memorable activities in fellowship and association with my fellow classmates all of whom have made valuable contributions to my social development.

I believe that all of the powers I have developed have been the total influence of society and that it is my duty to use them not alone for my individual gain but for the betterment of mankind, everywhere that it is my duty to protect and preserve all of the inherent privileges and opportunities of my diploma for the generations to come—that it shall be wisdom to guard and keep it safe against enemies for it is a passport into the hearts and minds of free men, everywhere.

God being willing, I shall with all of my strength and abilities abide with and keep all of these obligations that I have taken in the acceptance of my diploma.

My nine years at St. Joseph have been years of sorrow and happiness, work and pleasure. St. Joseph's represents Catholic education, an education consisting of three factors, spiritual, mental and physical. This education will be my foundation and guidance throughout the coming years. Good-bye S. J. A. I'll never forget you. May my life always be as happy as it has been here.

"I have spent only one year here at S. J. A. but during that time I have grown very fond of both the school and the girls. From the very first both Sisters and girls have treated me with the utmost consideration, they opened wide their arms to me, a stranger, and made me feel that I was welcome. I have come to the full realization of the importance of a Catholic education. For here at S. J. A. is the perfect example of a school which strives to form citizens who will work not only for the greater glory of God but also for their country. Now that the time has come for me to leave my newly-found friends, the Sisters and girls of S. J. A., I bid them a reluctant farewell. I shall never forget them or their kindness."

"For twelve long years, St. Joseph Academy has been to me a second home. Now that the longed for graduation time has come, I am loathe to leave. The Sisters have instilled in me their moral principles, have given me the best possible preparation for higher school work and have served as shining examples on which to pattern my life. I owe to them a debt I can never repay. May God reward them as He alone can."

JEANNE ARCENEAUX.

"After eight happy years spent at S. J. A. I take this opportunity to thank the Sisters and all those who made this day of graduation possible for me. For many years I have looked forward to the close of my high school career but as I leave the happy days and smiling faces of those I love I find that it is with feelings of mingling joy and sorrow that I say—Adieu."

ROSEMARY DICK.

"During the twelve years spent at S. J. A. I have learned to appreciate the high ideals of a Catholic education. Not only did I attain knowledge through books but by the example of my teachers I learned even more. My education would not have been complete without the fine moral training received here. This education I hope to carry with me through the years. For all this I am truly grateful. On leaving my beloved school I have two requests to make. 1. That I may visit my Alma Mater often in the future. 2. That I will be able to live up to the standards of a graduate of St. Joseph's."

CLASS '47 BIDS FAREWELL TO S. J. A.

May 31, marked the last day of school at St. Joseph Academy for the Class of 1947. The majority of the seventeen girls who composed the class had spent their four years of high school there and five of the group had gone all the way from the first grade through the twelfth grade. Naturally the joys of graduation were tempered for those young ladies by the sad thought that they must now leave their beloved "Alma Mater" and bid farewell to the "old familiar places" and especially to the companions and teachers of their youth.

Their hearts were overflowing with gratitude to those who had made these years at S. J. A. possible for them.

Each girl in testimony of the appreciation which she bears towards her "Alma Mater" and her teachers, the Sisters of St. Joseph wrote a special note of thanks and farewell. Space does not permit the printing of the notes in full so the following are excerpts from each girl's paper:

"The twelve years I spent at St. Joseph Academy have been the happiest years of my life. I'll always remember the Sisters of St. Joseph and all they have done for me. Now that the time has come to say farewell to my "Alma Mater" I have no fears on going out into the world for I feel that I have a firm foundation with which to carry on. I shall always be proud to say that I am a graduate of St. Joseph Academy."

LUCILLE BENVENUTI.

"I have spent nine years at S. J. A. under the guidance and instruction of the kind and helpful Sisters of St. Joseph. These years, I am confident, will be the happiest of my life. I am most grateful for the high ideals instilled in me and for the priceless gift of my Catholic education. I will always cherish the memory of my classmates and the days I spent at S. J. A. These memories will live on with me for all the years to come."

BETTY HERLIHY.

"I have waited twelve long years for this day to come and now that it is here, believe me, I am truly sorry. Sorry to leave S. J. A., the school I am proud to call my Alma Mater; sorry to leave my teachers the Sisters of St. Joseph who have given me a foundation so firm that now I feel I am really ready to face the future; sorry to leave my classmates, girls with whom I have had many happy years of work and play. My only wish is "May we meet again."

GEORGIA STAHEL.

"At last! The time has come! But now that it is here I am not so glad for now I realize that I must leave dear old S. J. A., my home for the past few years. Here I have received the foundation for my life. My only prayer is that I may build my life as strong as its foundation."

BETTY JOYCE REEVES.

ROSEMARY DICK.

"During the twelve years spent at S. J. A. I have learned to appreciate the high ideals of a Catholic education. Not only did I attain knowledge through books but by the example of my teachers I learned even more. My education would not have been complete without the fine moral training received here. This education I hope to carry with me through the years. For all this I am truly grateful. On leaving my beloved school I have two requests to make. 1. That I may visit my Alma Mater often in the future. 2. That I will be able to live up to the standards of a graduate of St. Joseph's."

NORMA GARCIA.

"My nine years at St. Joseph have been years of sorrow and happiness, work and pleasure. St. Joseph's represents Catholic education, an education consisting of three factors, spiritual, mental and physical. This education will be my foundation and guidance throughout the coming years. Good-bye S. J. A. I'll never forget you. May my life always be as happy as it has been here."

DOT SIMONS.

"I have spent only one year here at S. J. A. but during that time I have grown very fond of both the school and the girls. From the very first both Sisters and girls have treated me with the utmost consideration, they opened wide their arms to me, a stranger, and made me feel that I was welcome. I have come to the full realization of the importance of a Catholic education. For here at S. J. A. is the perfect example of a school which strives to form citizens who will work not only for the greater glory of God but also for their country. Now that the time has come for me to leave my newly-found friends, the Sisters and girls of S. J. A., I bid them a reluctant farewell. I shall never forget them or their kindness."

BETTY JOYCE REEVES.

"For twelve long years, St. Joseph Academy has been to me a second home. Now that the longed for graduation time has come, I am loathe to leave. The Sisters have instilled in me their moral principles, have given me the best possible preparation for higher school work and have served as shining examples on which to pattern my life. I owe to them a debt I can never repay. May God reward them as He alone can."

JEANNE ARCENEAUX.

"After eight happy years spent at S. J. A. I take this opportunity to thank the Sisters and all those who made this day of graduation possible for me. For many years I have looked forward to the close of my high school career but as I leave the happy days and smiling faces of those I love I find that it is with feelings of mingling joy and sorrow that I say—Adieu."

HE'S A JOLLY GOOD FELLOW

Yes, your Dad is a regular guy . . . he's the greatest unsung hero the world has ever known! He works hard, worries a lot, gives you all he can and asks so little in return! Sunday is HIS special day . . . so let him know that you remember . . . extend yourself to make his eyes a little brighter, his step a little jauntier, his back a little straighter, and his heart a good deal lighter. . . .

education can never be replaced, for I have received a sound basis not only for a worldly, but more important still for a religious and moral life. These four years have flown by as one and now that they are over it is hard to say good-bye to teachers, classmates, friends and school. When I leave I shall take with me many fond memories that are to remain with me forever."

HELEN MARTINSON.

"After two years spent within her sheltering walls, I leave S. J. A. the school I learned to love and hold dear as a second home. I shall not forget the work done by the Sisters of St. Joseph in the building of my education and especially my character, nor all the happy carefree moments spent in their company. The memories of the two years spent at S. J. A. will always remain as something very dear and near to me."

YVONNE GARCIA.

"During the past three years, my life at S. J. A. has brought me many experiences, joys and opportunities that I will treasure in the future. The helpful assistance and excellent examples of the Sisters will not be forgotten and I hope that my life will always reflect the unsurpassed character training they have given me. The fine work the Sisters are doing in educating children cannot be surpassed. It is comforting to know that some of the future mothers and fathers of America are getting such a good start at St. Joseph Academy. For twelve years I have looked forward to graduation but now that the time has come the thought of leaving S. J. A. saddens me considerably. I will be forever grateful to the kind Sisters of St. Joseph. May God bless them."

VIRGINIA SEAL.

"From the very first day of the twelve years spent at S. J. A. I have felt a hand-clasp which has led and guided me all through these years. Now the time has come to leave my Alma Mater and I no longer feel the hand-clasp but I feel the strength and courage which I have derived from the gentle guidance of the Sisters of St. Joseph—which strength and courage will help me in all my future decisions. To these dear Sisters, I say thank you and God bless you."

JOY MONTI.

"I have been a student and a boarder at S. J. A. for the last four years. My stay here has been both profitable and enjoyable and I am most thankful to the Sisters of St. Joseph for the loving care and many kindnesses which they have bestowed upon me. My only hope is that I may live up to the high ideals and Christian principles which they have instilled in me. May God bless them and also the classmates who have shared these last four years with me."

JANET OLIVER.

"I have spent four glorious years at S. J. A. and all of them have been full and wonderful. The teachers here are the best to be had. What they have given me in the line of bidding farewell to my beloved Alma Mater, to the kind Sisters who have taught me with so much patience and love, and to the dear classmates of whom I have grown so proud. As I go dear Alma Mater, I'll be singing in praise to thee."

THERESA BORDAGIES.

Can't Break His Good Habits!

Bert Childers was saying, it's funny how so many of our wartime habits stick with us.

Bert likes plenty of butter on his bread, but even now he can't get over spreading it like it was scarce as hen's teeth. And as a war worker, Bert used to stick to a temperate glass of beer on time off; and he still holds fast to beer and moderation.

Same way with Bert's wife. She not only has no trouble saving used fats, and waste paper. She's learned from wartime necessity to save every single thing that might possibly be used again.

From where I sit, it's mighty good that so many of these common-sense habits like thrift and moderation have stayed with us. Because they belong in America—along with tolerance, and mutual respect for one another's rights. They're habits that have helped to make this country strong and neighborly and free.

LITTLE THEATER
PRESENTS 'DEAR RUTH'

The Bay St. Louis Little Theater presented on last Thursday, Friday and Saturday the second play of its second season, Norman Krasna's Broadway comedy, "Dear Ruth." Judging from the constant laughs from the audience, orchids are in order to Director Tonkel and to his splendid cast for a performance which will long be remembered. Orchids too should go to Art Director John Lachin, who designed and supervised the building of one of the most attractive sets the Little Theater has yet had. All in all, "Dear Ruth" was a decided success in every way.

The cast for the play was composed of the following Little Theater members: Miss Mary Frances Scalfide, who played the title role of Ruth. Mr. Mark Solomon who played the leading man's role opposite her, that of Lt. Bill Seawright; Miss Louise Wilson, as Miriam, the young sister whose epistolary adventures created the basis for the plot of the play. Mr. John Bell, as Judge Wilkins, Ruth's father, whose every line produced spontaneous laughter from the audience; Mrs. A. J. Bernard, Ruth's charming and decidedly modern mother; Lt. William Freeman, Ruth's fiance, forced by circumstances to be tolerant and understanding against his better judgment; Lt. and Mrs. J. N. Horrocks, sweethearts caught in the maelstrom of the last war; Mrs. John Bell, the bewildered maid of the household; and Mr. Claude Hooton, Jr., the sailor who provided the last minute climax of the comedy.

Credit for the success of the play however, is due not only to the cast and to the director, but in quite a large measure to the unseen workers who contributed their efforts in all the numerous ways necessary to putting on a good performance. Particular credit should be given to Mr. Richard Shadoin, who assembled the properties needed; Mr. Alvin Weinfurter and Miss Cynthia Richardson, who performed the duties of the backstage manager during each performance; Mrs. William Freeman, who was in charge of all make-up; Mrs. John Bell, who made arrangements for the hostesses and refreshments each evening; and the Lorraine Flower Shop in Pass Christian for providing the eight dozen roses used each evening.

JUNE has swung around again, and this month brides by the thousands will start housekeeping — if they can find a house to keep.

In days soon to come, light housekeeping will be even lighter with electrical servants ready to wash and iron, clean and cook at the flip of a switch. And some day there will be many new electric aids — air conditioners, food freezers, electric blankets, television sets, and all the wonders of the era of electric living which lies ahead.

The electric service which powers these time-and-labor-saving appliances will continue to be inexpensive, friendly, dependable — ready around the clock and calendar — just as it has in the past.

Maybe 1947 brides will take the advantages of electricity for granted, just as you do. We hope they will. We're glad you just naturally count on the high efficiency and low cost of electric service. The men and women in this company worked hard to make electricity cheap and dependable. They'll work even harder to keep it that way.

In 1925, the average family's electricity dollar bought 7-1/3 kilowatt hours of electricity from the Mississippi Power Company. Today under the company's uniform, simplified electric rate, it buys 28 Kwh.

HARRY L. SUMRALL*Candidate For Sheriff and Tax-Collector Hancock County*DID YOU KNOW:

That your vote is your only personal weapon of defense?

That your vote is your only voice in your Government?

That you have only one chance in four years to use your vote?

That when you fail to use your vote yourself you fail in your duty and privilege as a citizen?

That in every election many people let others DICTATE on how to cast their ballot, and—

That such people have done just as much injury to democracy and freedom as the soldier who deserts under fire?

DID YOU ALSO KNOW:

That you have ONE candidate for Sheriff who is free, independent and unencumbered who can and will fill the office without fear, favor or compromise?

That this candidate for Sheriff is not only interested in the people and the masses, but also pledges himself that these people shall have impartial law enforcement in Hancock County for the first time in many terms of office?

That this candidate will lift the office of Sheriff to an office of honor and respect?

Why not cast your vote for him?
